Groupe Eurotunnel present at the "Jeunes d'Avenir" event in Lille

Groupe Eurotunnel is one of the major employers in the Nord-Pas-de-Calais and is committed to supporting employment for young people. The group will be present at the "Jeunes d'Avenir" (Young people for the future) exhibition at the Pierre Mauroy stadium in Lille, on Thursday 28 May 2015.

The first edition of this exhibition attracted more than 6,000 young people searching for employment or educational opportunities.

With a track record of significant recruitment over the past four years, Groupe Eurotunnel will be present at the exhibition with representation from its French subsidiaries, CIFFCO, Europorte and ESGIE, to showcase the different skills required in the railway business and will be offering around 50 local jobs, in sustainable sectors and complete with full training for successful candidates.
